AUGUST 7, 1896.
LOCAL AND PERSONAL.
Ed. Shields, of Loretto, was in town on Monday.
H. T. McNeely, of Johnstown, was in town on Monday.
The month's old child of Mr. and Mrs. Boylan, of Lily, died on Saturday.
Henry J. Hoppie, of Barr Township, was in town on Wednesday.
James Shaubough, of Carroll, was a visitor to Ebensburg on Wednesday.
Joseph Beater, one of Carroll's best known citizens, was in town on Wednesday.
Heavy storms have beaten down many places in the county, and the difficulty to harvest is increased.
Timothy Sheehan, one of Allegheny's best citizens, was a visitor to Ebensburg on Tuesday.
The Pennsylvania railroad has been put on reduction for a week of eight hours.
The late Mrs. W. A. Huff had the ends of the two middle fingers of his left hand taken off by being caught in the door of the large vault in the Trust Company's office at Greensburg. The lock on the vault is an automatic one, and while Mr. Huff was in the vault, the door went off, catching and crushing his fingers. The other fingers were considerably mangled.
In direct contrast to the weather of last summer is the weather we have experienced so far this year. Then a drought was scouring the land, the ground being parched and nearly everything in the line of small streams being dried up. This year the conditions have been just the reverse, the wettest season known for years, and it is long time since the ground contained so much moisture.
Enos Rose, of Malesburg, Tioga county, lost his life for a pair of chickens. His barn took fire and he succeeded in saving only a pair of fine hens. He went into the barn to rescue them, but Thomas Landon, a neighbor seeing his danger, followed. The old man's clothing and hair were already ablaze when Landon reached him and he had fallen to the floor. His burns were so severe that he died.
The Blair county almshouse was damaged by lightning on Wednesday. The building was struck, one of which was injured to the extent of $75. Many fruit and other trees were uprooted by the storm. Houses were struck and damaged. Dr. J. G. Anderson, in Altoona, was damaged by lightning, and Michael Sullivan, an employee of the water department, was stung.
Patrick Foley and Kib Newell, of Lily township, Clinton county, were driving down the Drury's Run road with a load of lumber Wednesday afternoon, and while they were crossing a township bridge it broke down, precipitating men, horses and wagon into the raging stream. The Rev. Novos states that the men succeeded in saving the lives of the horses and escaped themselves with only a thorough wetting.
Merrill Victoria Thomas, a 17-year-old maiden, sued Harry McCahan, of Hollidaysburg, on Friday, to recover $1,000 damages for breach of promise to marry. Miss Thomas alleges that McCahan was her betrothed husband for the past two years, and that he had made her pregnant at Canoe Creek. Eight days ago McCahan was wedded to a Miss Mattie Robinson, of Pittsburg.
During a recent thunder-storm about midnight the dwelling house of William Taylor, in Coaldale borough near Six Mile Run, Bedford county, was struck by lightning and had its roof struck. The electric fluid passed down and reduced to splinters a part of the bed in which Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were sleeping, and split a slab off the bed to which the spring was fastened, but strange to say did not hurt either of the occupants, although the man was badly stung and dazed for a time. The house is said to be a total wreck.
Conductor Simon C. Henry, who has been an employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad company for the past twenty years, was instantly killed by New York and Chicago limited near Jeannette, Pa., on Saturday evening. The dead body, which was crushed in on the back, was stopped at exactly 8:40, thus showing correctly the time the accident occurred. He is survived by his wife and six children. His remains were interred in Grand View cemetery, at Johnstown, on Tuesday morning.
About three months ago Adam Arcutt was arrested in Wilkingsburg on the charge of bigamy, but escaped from the officers. Since that time the authorities have been trying to capture him but without success. Learning that he was in Altoona, a warrant was issued for his arrest. He was captured there and officers were sent to Arcutt's boarding house. Arcutt jumped out of a second-story window and ran; the officers followed and held him up with their revolvers. On Sunday he was taken to Allegheny county to face his plurality of wives.
The conferees to select a Republican candidate for the twentieth congressional district will meet at Bedford on the 19th inst. There are four candidates in the field for the nomination: Alvin Evans, Esq., Cambria; J. D. Hicks, Blair; E. J. Kooser, Esq., Somerset, and J. E. Thompson, Bedford. The conference bids fair to be of more than ordinary interest because of the well-remembered dispute between Messrs. Hicks and Thropp over the matter of inter-ference in the Bedford county convention, in which the interference of the courts was invoked.
After experimenting with different colored paints for many years the Pennsylvania railroad finally adopted the Tuscan red as the most attractive and durable paint. Now that experiments are being made with the same kind of paint on locomotives the question is asked why it is not used on passenger coaches last night about 12 o'clock a red train was seen on the Pennsylvania lines? At any rate, it is given out that a number of officials are in favor of making it standard color for locomotives.—Altoona Times.
About one o'clock on Sunday morning the residence of County Superintendent Gibson, near the depot, was entered through a window in the back part of the house. Mr. Gibson heard the window being raised and at once sprang from his bed and picked up a revolver that he had within easy reach. The intruder evidently heard the noise and started to retreat, making his escape through the same window that he entered. Mr. Gibson fired a couple of shots at the fugitive but they failed to bring him to a halt.

—About 9 o'clock Saturday morning Julius Parker, and his fifteen-year-old son, Julius, were crushed to death in Berwind & White's coal mine, at Conno. They were found under a coal and sand stone one hour later, when driver Pierce entered their room for a car of coal. Parker, who was a Frenchman, and his son were "bearing in" and were caught under the fall. The miners who were in the neighborhood heard the noise, but thought that it was nothing more than an ordinary blast.
—At a meeting of the Spangler Improvement company on Wednesday of last week various matters in regard to the development of the town was discussed, and it was decided that a national bank should be established; Mr. W. P. Duncan, a banker of Philadelphia, was entrusted with the organization, and it is expected the project will materialize within the next three or four months. Mr. Duncan, in conjunction with Mr. James A. McClain, was also authorized to make arrangements for the extension of the Spangler Water company's system to supply North Spangler and Barnesboro.
—Snake stories are ripe now and we clip the following from an exchange showing how plentiful the rattlers are in Centre county: On Dry Ridge one day last week three men who were huckle berrying walked into a den of 75 to 100 rattlesnakes and were completely surrounded by them, all showing fight. The men were armed with shot guns, and at once opened fire, with the result that 40 snakes were killed, while the others scampered to hiding among the rocks. Several deaths have occurred from the bites of these poisonous snakes, and few people have courage to venture on the mountains in search of berries.
—Professor John Hamilton, deputy secretary of agriculture, says a good road is a good road. No wet road ever was or ever can be good. Another requisite in a good road is that it is solid at all seasons of the year. He says the roads of Pennsylvania can be picked six inches thick with finely broken stones in all districts where stones are easily obtainable for $41.60 a mile. In other words, the $60,000 miles of roads in this state can be picked with the taxes of last year in just nine years with bonding of township or increase of debt. A road raised from five to six inches thick with finely broken stones will carry all proper traffic that it may be called upon to bear.
—George Yeckley, Sr., an old and respected citizen of Gallitzin, died at his home in that place, on Tuesday, in the 87th year of his age. The deceased was born in Germany and came to this country in 1850 and first located at Plane No. 5, on the Old Portage road, where he remained for several years. He afterwards located at Gallitzin and has been a resident of that place for nearly forty years. Besides his aged wife he leaves to mourn his loss five sons and two daughters, viz: Jacob and Chas., of Gallitzin; William, of O. J. John, of Summit; George, of Portage; Mrs. W. R. Hancock, of Gallitzin, and Mrs. Samuel Miller, of Uniontown, Pa.
—There is probably not one person in the state of Pennsylvania, says the Philadelphia Record, who can boast that he sleeps with his head to the county seat in another. Joseph Wilson, of near Altoona, who is at the present time studying at the Philadelphia School of Design, claims that when he is at home he rests with his head in Lehigh county and his feet in Northampton. He says the house he lives in stands on the dividing line of the two counties and his bed lies directly across the line. There is also a bed in the same house which is bisected from head to foot by the county line, so that two persons may lie side by side in it and yet be in two different counties.
—On Monday morning of last week Mr. Emanuel Swartzwelder, whose farm is situated two miles from Chaneysville, Bedford county, and his son Frank were engaged in cutting hay by a mow drawn by two horses, and in attempting to take some grass from in front of the machine the older Mr. Swartzwelder was caught by the knives and dragged ten or twelve feet before he succeeded in extricating himself from his perilous position. Upon examination it was found that his limb was so badly lacerated that amputation was necessary, which was promptly done by Drs. Enfield, Smith, and Trimbath. The other limb was horribly mangled but not so seriously as the left one. He suffered from his injuries until Wednesday night, when death resulted. Deceased was sixty-two years old, and leaves a widow and five sons.
—Death came unexpectedly to Dr. Joseph Meredith Toner, of Washington, D. C., while he sat in a chair on the porch of the Mountain House, Cresson, Tuesday evening of last week at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. John Shields, housekeeper of the hotel, made the discovery, and Dr. Edward F. Graham, house physician, who was summoned, stated that life had been extinct two hours. Dr. Toner was born in Pittsburg, and in 1849 and 1850 studied with the late Dr. John Lowman, in Johnstown, and later was a graduate of Jefferson Medical College. He practiced his profession for a while at Summit and then removed to Harper's Ferry and afterwards to Washington, D. C. He was a bachelor, retired from the active practice of his profession. He had come to the Mountain House from Washington. The evening previous to his death he had returned from a visit to his brother at Derry. The remains were taken to Derry, where they were interred on Sunday morning.
Correspondence.
Lilly, Pa., August 5th, 1896.
Ed. Freeman's week is one of the most progressive little towns in the state of Pennsylvania. The town is all hustle and bustle from Monday morning until Saturday night. Everything is all activity. The people of the little town are ambitious and energetic and at this account for so much being done. The town can boast of having three churches, two schools, business houses of all kinds, a complete system of water works, a building and loan association and an opera house of first class style. A movement is now on foot to organize a fire company, a board of trade and there is some talk of a paper being printed. After the board of trade is thoroughly organized it is the expectation of many that manufacturing concerns can be induced to locate here, as they could find no better location between Harrisburg and Pittsburg. Lilly, with its pushing energetic citizens, bids fair to become one of the foremost towns in the state.
Hustler.
Bedford Murder.
Greensburg, Pa., August 2.—One of the most heinous murders ever committed in this locality was perpetrated in the little mining village of Danville, in the Madison county, on Sunday night about 12 o'clock. Patrick Coyne, an old, gray-haired miner, 70 years of age, was pounded and choked to death by his son, Walter Coyne, who was 24 years old. Mrs. Coyne, the mother of the murderer, was an eye witness of the horrible crime and on her knees pleaded for the life of her husband, but was finally compelled to see.
Young Coyne's wife recently became demoralized and was sent to an asylum on Friday last. Coyne's aged parents, taking charge of the young man, were approached by his father for drinking and neglecting his child. The young man sprang at his father and beat and choked him to death. The mother sounded the alarm and a number of stalwart miners of the neighborhood came and after a desperate struggle overpowered the murderer. Coyne was sent for and Coyne was taken to jail.
